The Company shall provide Parent prompt written notice of any demands received by the Company for appraisal of Company Common Stock, any withdrawal of any such demand and any other demand, notice or instrument delivered to the Company prior to the Effective Time pursuant to the DC Code that relates to such demand, and the Company shall have the opportunity and right to direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands. (g) No Further Ownership Rights in Company Common Stock. The applicable portion of the Merger Consideration payable upon the surrender for exchange of Company Common Stock in accordance with the terms hereof shall, when paid in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the shares of Company Common Stock formerly represented by Company stock certificates, subject to the right to receive distributions of the remaining portion of the Merger Consideration, including the Holdback Amount, the Achieved Earnout Amount, if any, and other amounts to be disbursed to the Company Shareholders to be paid pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. To the extent that amounts are so deducted and withheld by the Paying Agent, Parent, Merger Sub, the Surviving Corporation or their respective authorized affiliates, as the case may be, and paid over to the appropriate Governmental Entity, such amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the Person in respect of which the Paying Agent, Parent, Merger Sub, the Surviving Corporation or their respective authorized affiliates, as the case may be, made such deduction and withholding.

In the event that the Shareholder Representative shall not deliver any such objection(s) with respect to the Closing Certificate or the Closing Balance Sheet within such thirty (30)-day period, then the Closing Certificate shall be deemed final for purposes of this Section 2.14. In the event that any such objection(s) are so delivered, the Closing Certificate shall be deemed not final and Parent and the Shareholder Representative shall attempt, in good faith, to resolve the Disputed Items and, if they are unable to resolve all of the Disputed Items within thirty (30) days of delivery of such notice, shall, within five (5) Business Days thereafter (or such earlier date as mutually agreed), submit the Disputed Items to the Independent Accounting Firm. Parent and the Shareholder Representative shall provide to the Independent Accounting Firm all work papers and back-up materials relating to the Disputed Items requested by the Independent Accounting Firm to the extent available to Parent or its Representatives or the Shareholder Representative or its Representatives; provided, however, that any materials so provided to the Independent Accounting Firm shall also be made available to the other disputing party hereto. Parent and the Shareholder Representative shall be afforded the opportunity to present to the Independent Accounting Firm any material related to the Disputed Items and to discuss the issues with the Independent Accounting Firm. No party shall have or conduct any communication with the Independent Accounting Firm without the other party either being present or, with respect to written communication, sending to the other party a concurrent copy thereof. The Independent Accounting Firm shall base its determination solely on the presentations and supporting material provided by the parties. In resolving any Disputed Item, the Independent Accounting Firm shall not assign a value to any item higher than the highest value for such item, or lower than the lowest value for such item, claimed by either Parent or the Shareholder Representative. The determination by the Independent Accounting Firm, as set forth in a notice to be delivered to Parent and the Shareholder Representative within thirty (30) days after the submission of the Disputed Items to the Independent Accounting Firm, shall be final, binding and conclusive on Parent, the Shareholder Representative and the Company Shareholders. The fees and expenses of the Independent Accounting Firm shall be split equally between Parent and the Shareholder Representative. (c) At such time as the Closing Certificate shall become final in accordance with Section 2.14(b), the Estimated Working Capital shall be compared to the Final Working Capital, and the Estimated Net Cash shall be compared to the Final Net Cash.

(i) In the event that the aggregate of the Final Working Capital and the Final Net Cash is less than the aggregate of the Estimated Working Capital and the Estimated Net Cash, then Parent shall be entitled to an immediate reduction from the Adjustment Holdback Amount of an amount equal to such deficiency and Parent shall distribute the balance of the Adjustment Holdback Amount to the Company Shareholders in accordance with each such Company Shareholder’s Pro Rata Portion of such amount as set forth on the Payment Schedule. 6.2 Confidentiality.

(a) The parties acknowledge that Parent (or one of its Affiliates) and the Company have previously executed a Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement, dated September 8, 2020 (the “Confidentiality Agreement”), which Confidentiality Agreement is hereby incorporated herein by reference and shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with its terms, as if such Confidentiality Agreement were entered into directly by each of the parties hereto; provided that from and after the Closing, all of Parent’s and its Affiliates obligations under the Confidentiality Agreement shall terminate and be of no further force or effect. For the avoidance of doubt, each party may make statements that are not inconsistent with previous press releases, public disclosures or public statements made by the parties in connection with this Section 6.3.

6.4 Notification of Certain Matters. Each of the Company and Parent shall give immediate notice to the other if any of the following occurs during the Pre-Closing Period:

(b) receipt of any notice or other communication in writing from any Person alleging that the consent of such Person is or may be required in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement;

(c) receipt of any notice or other communication from any Governmental Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement;

(f) the occurrence or non-occurrence of any fact or event that causes or is reasonably likely to cause a breach by the Company or Parent of any provision of this Agreement applicable to it;

(g) the occurrence of any fact or event of which such party becomes aware that results in any material inaccuracy in any representation or warranty of such party in this Agreement; and

(h) the occurrence of any event that, had it occurred prior to the Agreement Date without any additional disclosure hereunder, would have constituted a Company Material Adverse Effect; provided, that the delivery of any notice by any party pursuant to this provision shall not modify any representation or warranty of such party, cure any breaches thereof or limit or otherwise affect the rights or remedies available hereunder to the other parties and the failure of the party receiving such information to take any action with respect to such notice shall not be deemed a waiver of any breach or breaches to the representations or warranties of the party disclosing such information.

6.5 Employees.

(a) During the Pre-Closing Period, the Company will use commercially reasonable efforts in consultation with Parent to retain the employees of the Company, including the Key Employees, through the Closing Date and following the Merger.

(b) Parent intends for the Company to continue to employ all of the employees of the Company, subject to confirmation that they satisfy Parent's generally applicable employment requirements. For all continuing employees and until December 31, 2021, Parent will continue to provide compensation and benefits under the Company's existing plans. Effective on or about January 1, 2022, all continuing employees will be provided compensation and benefits pursuant to Parent plans that are comparable in the aggregate with the compensation and benefits (excluding equity compensation, severance pay and benefits, retiree health benefits, and defined benefit pension plan benefits) enjoyed by Company employees immediately prior to the Effective Time or by similarly-situated employees of Parent or its Affiliates. Parent will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause that each continuing employee will receive credit for purposes of eligibility to participate and vesting under each Parent plan for years of service with the Company prior to the Effective Time. In addition, with respect to any health and welfare plan maintained by Parent or its Affiliates (including the Company) in which any continuing employee is eligible to participate on or after the Closing Date, Parent will use commercially reasonable efforts to (A) cause pre-existing conditions or limitations, exclusions, eligibility waiting periods, required physical examinations, and other evidence of insurability requirements under any Parent plans that are welfare benefit plans in which such continuing employees will be eligible to participate upon or after the Effective Time to be waived and (B) provide credit for any co-payments, co-insurance, deductibles, offsets, out-of-pocket expenses or similar requirements under any such plans in which the continuing employee (and his or her eligible dependents) will participate upon or after the Effective Time. As of the Closing, Parent will cause all vacation accrued by continuing employees under the vacation policies of the Company to be carried over by Parent and shall be permitted to be maintained up to the levels permitted under the applicable policy of the Company.

(c) The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that the terms set forth in this Section 6.5 shall not create any right in any employee of the Company or any other Person, to any continued employment with the Company, Parent or any of its Affiliates or compensation or benefits of any nature or kind whatsoever. This Section 6.5 is not intended, and shall not be deemed, to confer any rights or remedies upon any Person other than the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns, to create any agreement of employment with any Person or to otherwise create any third-party beneficiary hereto. Nothing contained in this Section 6.5 shall be deemed to be the adoption of, or an amendment to, any employee benefit plan, program, arrangement, contract or practice, or otherwise limit the right of the Parent to amend, modify or terminate any employee benefit plan, program, arrangement, contract, practice or other Company program, including but not limited to its travel or other policies.

(d) In the event this Agreement is terminated without giving effect to the Merger, Parent agrees that it and its Affiliates will not, during the two years after the date of termination, solicit for employment (as an employee, independent contractor, consultant or otherwise), any employee of the Company as of the Agreement Date. The foregoing shall not restrict the Parent and its Affiliates from making general solicitations of employment not specifically directed to the employees of the Company.

6.6 Expenses. Whether or not the Merger is consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be paid by the party incurring such expense. For purposes of clarity, the Company shall be responsible for the Transaction Expenses.

6.7 Release and Termination of Security Interests. The Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to seek and obtain the release of all outstanding security interests, in any, of the Company's assets and to terminate all UCC financing statements, if any, which have been filed with respect to such security interests.

6.8 Required Contract Consents. To the extent requested by Parent, the Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the consent to any Contract for which consent is required in connection with the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and shall deliver such consents to Parent.

6.9 Shareholder Approval.

(a) As promptly as practicable, but in no event more than five (5) Business Days following the Agreement Date, the Company shall submit this Agreement and the Transactions (including the Merger) to all of the Company Shareholders for approval and adoption as provided by the DGCL and the DC Code and the Company's Organizational Documents. Such notice shall advise the Company Shareholders of their right to pursue appraisal rights and otherwise satisfy the requirements of the DC Code. Such submission, and any proxy or consent in connection therewith, shall specify that adoption of this Agreement shall constitute approval by the Company Shareholders of: (i) the holdback and indemnification obligations of the Company Shareholders (subject to the limitations herein) and (ii) the appointment of Michael Whalen as the Shareholders' Representative, with the rights and responsibilities set forth in this Agreement. The Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the approval of or consent to the Merger and this Agreement of as many of the Company Shareholders as practicable following the Agreement Date.

(b) Any materials to be submitted to the Company Shareholders in connection with the solicitation of their approval of the Merger and this Agreement shall be subject to the reasonable review and approval by Parent.

6.10 Support Agreements. The Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain prior to the Closing a Support Agreement executed by each Company Shareholder, other than a Company Shareholder who has executed and delivered a Voting and Support Agreement.

6.11 Data Room. Within five (5) Business Days after the Closing Date, the Company will deliver to Parent on one or more memory sticks a complete and accurate electronic copy of the data room as it existed on the Closing Date. Delivery of any item included in the memory sticks pursuant to this Section 6.10 shall constitute "delivery" within the meaning of Section 3.

6.12 Tax Matters.

(a) Allocation of Taxes. In the case of any Taxes relating to a Tax period that includes (but does not end on) the Closing Date (the "Straddle Period"), the portion of such Tax which relates to the Pre-Closing Tax Period shall (i) in the case of any Taxes other than Taxes based upon or related to income, gains or receipts, be deemed to be the amount of such Tax for the entire Straddle Period multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the number of days in the Pre-Closing Tax Period and the denominator of which is the number of days in the entire Straddle Period, and (ii) in the case of any Tax based upon or related to income, gains or receipts be deemed equal to the amount which would be payable if the relevant Straddle Period ended on the Closing Date.

(b) Preparation of Tax Returns. Parent shall prepare or cause to be prepared and timely file or cause to be timely filed all Tax Returns for the Company for the Pre-Closing Tax Period and Straddle Period that are required to be filed after the Closing Date. All Tax Returns filed by Parent after the Closing Date will be prepared in a manner consistent with the past practice and custom of the Company to the extent consistent with Applicable Law. At least thirty (30) days prior to the date that each such Tax Return is due, Parent shall submit such Tax Return to the Shareholder Representative for its review and consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld). When preparing such Tax Returns, Parent agrees that all Tax deductions and other benefits relating to the Transaction Expenses shall be allocated to the Pre-Closing Period to the extent permitted by Applicable Law.

(c) Tax Contests. After the Closing Date, Parent, the Company and the Shareholder Representative, respectively, shall inform the other party in writing of the commencement of any claim, audit, investigation, examination, or other proceeding or self-assessment relating in whole or in part to Taxes for a Pre-Closing Tax Period ("Tax Contest") for which Parent may be entitled to indemnity under this Agreement. After the Closing Date, Parent shall have the exclusive right to represent the interests of the Company in any and all Tax Contests; provided, however, that the Shareholder Representative shall have the right to participate in any such Tax Contest and to employ counsel at its own expense of its choice (which counsel shall be reasonably acceptable to Parent) for purposes of such participation to the extent that any such Tax Contest could reasonably be expected to result in a Tax liability subject to indemnification pursuant to this Agreement; and provided further that, to the extent such Tax Contest relates to a Pre-Closing Tax Period, Parent shall promptly provide the Shareholder Representative with any material correspondence with the applicable Tax Authority related thereto. In the event that Parent proposes to compromise or settle any Tax Contest, or consent or agree to any Tax liability, relating to the Company that would result in an indemnity payment, the Shareholder Representative shall have the right to review such proposed compromise, settlement, consent or agreement. Parent shall not agree or consent to compromise or settle any Tax Contest for a Pre-Closing Tax Period or liability for indemnification unless the Shareholder Representative consents to such settlement, compromise or concession, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

(d) Cooperation. Parent and the Shareholder Representative shall cooperate fully as and to the extent reasonably requested by the other party in connection with the preparation and filing of any Return required of the Company and the defense of any Tax Contest, claim, audit, litigation or other proceeding, with respect to Taxes which may be payable by the Company for a Pre-Closing Tax Period. Parent, the Company and the Shareholder Representative agree to abide by all record retention requirements of, or record retention agreements entered into with, any Tax authority.

(e) Certain Taxes and Fees. All transfer, documentary, sales, use, stamp, registration, value added and other such Taxes, and all conveyance fees, recording charges and other fees and charges (including any penalties and interest) incurred in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be borne and paid fifty percent (50%) by the Company Shareholders and fifty percent (50%) by Parent when due. The party responsible under Applicable Law for submitting payment of such Taxes to the applicable Tax authority shall file all necessary Returns and other documentation with respect to all such transfer, documentary, sales, use, stamp, registration and other Taxes and fees. If required by Applicable Law, Parent or the Company shall join in the execution of any such Returns and other documentation.

(f) Post-Closing Actions. Unless otherwise required by Applicable Law, Parent shall not, and shall not permit any of its Affiliates (including after the Closing, for the avoidance of doubt, the Surviving Corporation) to, except as otherwise permitted under this Section 6.12, file, re-file, supplement, or amend any Tax Return of the Company for any Pre-Closing Tax Period to the extent such filing would result in a liability for indemnification of the Company Shareholders under this Agreement or an increased personal Tax liability of the Company Shareholders.

(g) Tax Agreements. Except for agreements entered into the ordinary course, the principal purpose of which is not Taxes, all Tax-sharing agreements or similar contracts with respect to or involving the Company and any other person shall be terminated as of the Closing Date and, after the Closing Date, the Company shall not be bound thereby or have any liability thereunder.

6.13 Release of Claims.

(a) By execution and delivery of the Letter of Transmittal and effective for all purposes as of the Closing, each Company Shareholder acknowledges and agrees, on behalf of itself (or, as applicable, himself or herself) and each of its (or, as applicable, his or her) current or former Affiliates, officers, directors, employees, managers, partners, principals, advisors, agents, servants, shareholders, members, investors, equity holders or other representatives, including attorneys, accountants, consultants, bankers and financial advisors, heirs, beneficiaries, estates, executors, administrators, trustees, successors or assigns (such Company Shareholder's "Releasing Affiliates") that none of such Company Shareholder or its Releasing Affiliates as of immediately prior to the Closing (i) has any Claims, or (ii) has transferred or assigned, or purported to transfer or assign, any Claims, in each case, relating to the Company against the Company or Parent, or their respective current or former affiliates, officers, directors, employees, managers, partners, principals, advisors, agents, servants,

(b) By execution and delivery of the Letter of Transmittal and effective for all purposes as of the Closing, each Company Shareholder, on behalf of itself (or, as applicable, himself or herself) and each of its (or, as applicable, his or her) Releasing Affiliates irrevocably and unconditionally releases and forever discharges the Released Parties from any and all claims, demands, allegations, assertions, complaints, controversies, charges, duties, grievances, rights, causes of action, suits, liabilities, debts, obligations, promises, commitments, agreements, guarantees, endorsements, duties, damages, costs, losses, debts and expenses (including attorneys’ fees and costs incurred) of any nature whatsoever (whether direct or indirect, known or unknown, disclosed or undisclosed, matured or unmatured, accrued or unaccrued, asserted or unasserted, absolute or contingent, determined or conditional, express or implied, fixed or variable and whether vicarious, derivative, joint, several or secondary) relating to the Company existing as of immediately prior to the Closing (collectively, “Claims”); provided, however, that the foregoing release shall not cover (A) the rights of such Company Shareholder or any of such Company Shareholder’s Releasing Affiliates under this Agreement or any Transaction Document, (B) if such Person is a current or former employee, rights to earned but unpaid cash compensation due to such Person that remain unpaid as of the Closing Date, unreimbursed business expenses incurred in the ordinary course and reimbursable pursuant to the Company’s business expense policy, rights to any benefits under employee health and welfare plans to the extent consistent with terms of applicable governing plan documents and the entitlement to continuing coverage benefits or any other similar benefits required to be provided by Applicable Law, or (C) any rights to indemnification, advancement of expenses, exculpation or rights to benefit pursuant to the Company’s Organizational Documents, any directors’ and officers’ liability insurance policy maintained by the Company, or any indemnification agreement between such Person and the Company or pursuant to which such Person is a third party beneficiary that are made available to Parent.

(c) By execution and delivery of the Letter of Transmittal, each Company Shareholder, on behalf of itself and each of its (or, as applicable, his or her) Releasing Affiliates acknowledges that it, he or she may hereafter discover facts in addition to or different from those that such Company Shareholder or Releasing Affiliate now knows or believes to be true with respect to the subject matter of this release, but it is such Company Shareholder’s and Releasing Affiliate’s intention to fully and finally and forever settle and release any and all Claims (other than as set forth in the proviso included in subsection (a) above) that do now exist, may exist or heretofore have existed with respect to the subject matter of this release. In furtherance of this intention, the releases contained herein shall be and remain in effect as full and complete releases notwithstanding the discovery or existence of any such additional or different facts.

6.14 Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

(a) For the period of six (6) years following the Effective Time, Surviving Corporation shall, and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, honor the indemnification rights of each person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the Agreement Date or who becomes prior to the Effective Time, an officer or director of the Company (the “Company Indemnified Parties”) to the extent required by the Certificate of Incorporation of the Company, Bylaws of the Company, by any contractual right under a contract listed in Schedule 6.14(a), or by law, for any actual or alleged acts, errors, omissions, or claims by reason of their status, in all cases prior to the Effective Time (the “Company Indemnified Liabilities”).

(a) by the mutual written consent of Parent and the Company;

(c) by either Parent or the Company if a court of competent jurisdiction or other Governmental Entity shall have issued a nonappealable final order, decree or ruling or taken any other action, in each case having the effect of permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the Merger, unless the party relying on such order, decree or ruling or other action has not complied in all material respects with its obligations under this Agreement;

(d) by Parent or the Company, if there has been a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of the other party set forth in this Agreement, which breach (i) causes the conditions set forth in Section 7.1 or 7.2 (in the case of termination by Parent) or Section 7.1 or 7.3 (in the case of termination by the Company) not to be satisfied and (ii) shall not have been cured within ten (10) Business Days following receipt by the breaching party of written notice of such breach from the other party; or

(e) by Parent, if there shall have occurred any change in the financial condition, properties, assets (including intangible assets), liabilities, business, operations, or results of operations of Company, that, individually or in the aggregate, has had or is reasonably likely to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

8.2 Effect of Termination. In the event of termination of this Agreement as provided in Section 8.1, there shall be no liability or obligation on the part of Parent, or the Company or their respective officers, directors, or shareholders, except to the extent that such termination results from the willful breach by a party of any of its representations, warranties or covenants set forth in this Agreement; provided, however, that the provisions of Sections 6.2, 6.3, 6.6, 8.2 and 10 shall remain in full force and effect and survive any termination of this Agreement.

8.3 Amendment. Prior to the Closing, the parties hereto may amend this Agreement pursuant to an instrument in writing signed on behalf of Parent and the Company. From and after the Closing, Parent and the Shareholder Representative may cause this Agreement to be amended only by execution of an instrument in writing signed on behalf of Parent and the Shareholder Representative.

8.4 Extension; Waiver. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in a written instrument signed on behalf of such party.

9. Indemnification.

9.1 Indemnification by the Company Shareholders.

(a) Indemnification by the Company Shareholders. Subject to the limitations set forth in this Section 9, the Company Shareholders shall, based solely on each Company Shareholder's Pro Rata Portion of the Indemnity Holdback Amount, indemnify and hold harmless Parent and its Affiliates (including the Company) and their respective officers, directors, agents (individually a "Parent Indemnified Person" and collectively the "Parent Indemnified Persons") from and against any and all losses, costs, damages, liabilities, and expenses of any kind or nature, including without limitation costs and expenses arising from claims, demands, actions, causes of action and settlements, including reasonable fees and expenses of lawyers, experts and other professionals (collectively, "Damages"), resulting from or arising out of:

(i) any failure of any of the representations and warranties given or made by the Company in this Agreement or any certificate furnished pursuant thereto to be true and correct as of the Agreement Date and as of the Closing Date (as though such representation or warranty were made as of the Closing Date), except in the case of representations and warranties which by their terms speak only as of a specific date or dates, in which case such representations and warranties shall have been true and correct on and as of such specified date or dates;

(ii) any breach of any covenant or agreement made by the Company in this Agreement;

(iii) all Pre-Closing Taxes not included in Working Capital and any "excess parachute payment" (within the meaning of Section 280G(b) of the Code, if applicable) made by the Company on or prior to the Closing Date or otherwise required to be paid by the Company, the Surviving Corporation pursuant to any Contract, Employment Agreement, Change of Control, or Company Employee Plan entered into or adopted by the Company on or prior to the Agreement Date;

(iv) any inaccuracies in the Payment Schedule;

(v) any Transaction Expenses or Indebtedness of the Company not reflected in the final Closing Certificate;

(vi) the exercise by holders of Dissenting Shares of any appraisal or dissenters' rights under the DC Code or other applicable Law and any amounts paid to the holders of Dissenting Shares resulting therefrom, including any interest required to be paid thereon, that are in excess of what such holders would have received hereunder as Company Shareholders had such holders not been holders of Dissenting Shares, and any costs or expenses (including attorneys' fees, costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding or in connection with any investigation) in respect of any Dissenting Shares;

(vii) any Claims by any former holder (or purported holder) of any equity interests of the Company (including any predecessors), arising out of, resulting from or in connection with the allocation of the Merger Consideration or any portion thereof that differs from that specified on the Payment Schedule;

(viii) any matter set forth in Section 3.8 of the Disclosure Schedule or that is or would be a breach of any of the representations and warranties made in Section 3.8;

(ix) defending any third party claim alleging the occurrence of facts or circumstances that, if true, would entitle an Parent Indemnified Person to indemnification hereunder; and

(x) the matters set forth on Schedule 9.1(a)(x).

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, for purposes of (x) determining whether there has been a breach of any of the representations and warranties given or made by the Company in this Agreement or any certificate or document hereto and (y) the determination of the amount of Damages resulting from or arising out of such breach, all qualifications or exceptions in any warranty relating to or referring to the terms “material”, “materiality”, “in all material respects”, “Material Adverse Effect” or any similar term or phrase shall be disregarded (other than the defined term “Material Contract”), it being the understanding of the parties hereto that for purposes of determining liability under this Section 9, such warranties shall be read as if such terms and phrases were not included therein.

(b) Survival of Representations and Warranties. All representations and warranties made by the parties herein or any certificate delivered pursuant to this Agreement shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the Closing until the Indemnity Holdback Termination Date; provided, however, that for purposes of the R&W Insurance Policy, the representations set forth in Section 3.19 (Taxes) (the “Tax Representations”) shall survive until the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations and the representations set forth in Sections 3.1 (Organization, Good Standing and Power; Subsidiaries), 3.2 (Authority), 3.5 (Capitalization), 3.17(a) (Title to Property), 3.31 (Brokers’ and Finders’ Fees) (the “Company Fundamental Representations”) shall survive until the six year anniversary of the Closing Date. There shall be no termination of any representation or warranty as to which a claim has been asserted by a Parent Indemnified Person prior to the termination of such survival period. All covenants and agreements survive indefinitely unless otherwise specified in their terms. The date of expiration of a claim for indemnification under this Agreement is referred to as such claim’s “Expiration Date.”

(c) Threshold for Claims. No claim for Damages shall be made under Section 9.1(a)(i) unless the aggregate of Damages for which claims are made hereunder by the Parent Indemnified Persons exceeds $50,000 (the “Threshold”), in which case the Parent Indemnified Persons shall be entitled to seek compensation for all Damages from the first dollar; provided, however, that the Threshold shall not apply with respect to (i) any Damages arising from, or directly or indirectly related to, any claims for indemnification with respect to the Tax Representations, the Company Fundamental Representations, Fraud or intentional or knowing misrepresentation or breach, or (ii) for the avoidance of doubt, any matter described under Section 9.1(a)(ii) – (x).

(d) Cap on Indemnification.

(i) The aggregate amount to be paid by the Company Shareholders for claims for Damages made under Section 9.1(a)(i) shall not exceed the Retention Cap; provided, however, that the Retention Cap shall not apply with respect to (i) any Damages arising from, or directly or indirectly related to, any claims for indemnification with respect to the Tax Representations, the Company Fundamental Representations, Fraud or intentional or knowing misrepresentation or breach, or (ii) for the avoidance of doubt, any matter described under Section 9.1(a)(ii) – (x).

(ii) The aggregate amount to be paid by the Company Shareholders for claims for Damages made under Section 9.1(a) shall not exceed an amount equal to the Indemnity Holdback Amount (the “Cap”); provided, however, that the Cap shall not apply to any Damages arising from, or directly or indirectly related to, any claims for indemnification involving Fraud or intentional or knowing misrepresentation or breach by a Company Shareholder.

(iii) In no event shall any Company Shareholder be responsible for Damages under Section 9.1(a) in excess of such Company Shareholder's Pro Rata Portion of the Indemnity Holdback Amount, except for (A) Damages arising out of such Company Shareholder's Fraud or intentional or knowing misrepresentation or breach, or actual knowledge of another's Fraud, or (B) a breach of a covenant or agreement by such Company Shareholder.

(e) Satisfaction of Claims. Subject to the other limitations in this Section 9, any Damages incurred by a Parent Indemnified Person that are determined to be subject to indemnification by the Company Shareholders pursuant to Section 9.1(a) (other than claims for indemnification involving Fraud or intentional or knowing misrepresentation or breach), shall be satisfied solely by the funds available in the Indemnity Holdback Amount and the R&W Insurance Policy.

(f) Disclosures. The disclosures set forth in the Disclosure Schedules shall affect only the representations and warranties to which they relate and the indemnification provisions set forth in Section 9.1(a); they shall not have any effect on or in any other way limit the indemnification provisions set forth in Section 9.1(a)(ii) – (x) which shall have independent effect regardless of any disclosure in the Disclosure Schedules or otherwise.

(g) R&W Insurance Policy. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) nothing herein (including with respect to the Threshold or Cap) is intended to, nor shall it have the effect of, limiting or diminishing the Parent Indemnified Persons' right to seek or obtain recovery under the R&W Insurance Policy, and (ii) as between Parent, on the one hand, and the Insurer, on the other hand, none of the limitations and restrictions (including time for asserting claims) on indemnification set forth in this Section 9 shall affect the rights of Parent under the R&W Insurance Policy, which rights shall be governed solely thereby.

9.2 Indemnification by Parent.

(a) Indemnification by Parent. Subject to the limitations set forth in this Section 9, Parent shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company Shareholders from and against any and all Damages resulting from or arising out of:

(i) any failure of any of the representations and warranties given or made by the Parent or Merger Sub in this Agreement to be true and correct as of the Agreement Date and as of the Closing Date (as though such representation or warranty were made as of the Closing Date), except in the case of representations and warranties which by their terms speak only as of a specific date or dates, in which case such representations and warranties shall have been true and correct on and as of such specified date or dates; and

(ii) any breach of any covenant or agreement made by the Parent or Merger Sub in this Agreement.

9.3 Indemnification Claims.

(a) With respect to indemnification claims of the Parent Indemnified Persons to recover Damages under Section 9.1, Parent (on behalf of a Parent Indemnified Person) must deliver to the Shareholder Representative (on behalf of the Company Shareholders) on or before the applicable Expiration Date a written notice (a "Claim Notice") stating that Damages exist with respect to the indemnification obligations of the Company Shareholders set forth in Section 9.1, and specifying in reasonable detail (to the extent known) the individual items of such Damages included in the amount so stated, and the nature of the misrepresentation, breach of warranty, covenant or claim to which such item is related.

(b) The Shareholder Representative shall have a period of thirty (30) days from and after delivery of any Claim Notice to deliver to the Parent a response, in which the Shareholder Representative shall: (i) agree that the applicable Parent Indemnified Person is entitled to receive all of the requested Damages or (ii) dispute that such Parent Indemnified Person is entitled to receive the requested Damages.

(c) If the Shareholder Representative does not deliver a response before the expiration of the thirty (30) day period referred to in Section 9.3(b) disputing any claim or claims made in the Claim Notice, the applicable Parent Indemnified Person shall, subject to the provisions of this Section 9, be entitled to recover such Damages and, if any of the Indemnity Holdback Amount remains, reduce the Indemnity Holdback Amount by an amount equal to such Damages and such amount shall no longer be payable to the Company Shareholders out of the Indemnity Holdback Amount.

(d) If the Shareholder Representative disputes any claim or claims made in any Claim Notice, the Parent shall have thirty (30) days to respond in a written statement to the objection of the Shareholder Representative. If after such thirty (30) day period there remains a dispute as to any claims, the Shareholder Representative and Parent shall attempt in good faith for thirty (30) days to agree upon the rights of the respective parties with respect to each of such claims (the “Claims Period”). If the Shareholder Representative and Parent should so agree, a memorandum setting forth such agreement shall be prepared and signed by Parent and the Shareholder Representative. Parent shall be entitled to rely on any such memorandum for the reduction of the Indemnity Holdback Amount.

(e) With respect to indemnification claims of the Company Shareholders to recover Damages under set forth in Section 9.2, the Shareholder Representative (on behalf of the Company Shareholders) must deliver to the Parent on or before the applicable Expiration Date a Claim Notice stating that Damages exist with respect to the indemnification obligations of the Parent set forth in Section 9.2, and specifying in reasonable detail (to the extent known) the individual items of such Damages included in the amount so stated, and the nature of the misrepresentation, breach of warranty, covenant or claim to which such item is related. The provisions of Sections 9.3(b) - (d) shall also apply to the handling of such claims, the parties being reversed.

9.4 Resolution of Conflicts. If no agreement can be reached after good faith negotiation between the parties pursuant to Section 9.3(d), either Parent or the Shareholder Representative may initiate formal legal action with the applicable court in accordance with Section 10.6(b) to resolve such dispute. The decision of the court as to the validity and amount of any claim shall be binding and conclusive upon the parties to this Agreement, and notwithstanding anything in Section 9 hereof, the parties shall be entitled to act in accordance with such decision.

9.5 Shareholder Representative.

(a) The Shareholder Representative shall be constituted and appointed as agent and attorney-in-fact for and on behalf of the Company Shareholders and shall have full power authority to represent, to give and receive notices and communications, to authorize Parent to reduce the Indemnity Holdback Amount in satisfaction of claims by Parent as provided hereunder, to object to such deliveries, to agree to, negotiate, enter into settlements and compromises of, and demand arbitration and comply with orders of courts and awards of arbitrators with respect to such claims, to act on the Company

Shareholders' behalf with respect to the matters set forth herein, in accordance with the terms and provisions set forth herein, including giving and receiving all notices and communications to be given or received with respect to the matters set forth in Section 2.14 and Section 9 and to take all actions necessary or appropriate in the judgment of the Shareholder Representative for the interpretation of this Agreement and accomplishment of the foregoing. Such agency may be changed by the holders of a majority in interest of the Company Common Stock immediately prior to the Effective Time from time to time upon not less than ten (10) days' prior written notice to Parent. No bond shall be required of the Shareholder Representative. Notices or communications to or from the Shareholder Representative shall constitute notice to or from each of the Company Shareholders.

(b) The Shareholder Representative shall not be liable for any act done or omitted hereunder as Shareholder Representative while acting in good faith and any act done or omitted pursuant to the advice of counsel shall be conclusive evidence of such good faith. The Company Shareholders shall severally indemnify and hold the Shareholder Representative harmless against any loss, liability or expense incurred without gross negligence or bad faith on the part of the Shareholder Representative and arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of his duties hereunder.

(c) The Shareholder Representative shall have reasonable access to information about Company and the reasonable assistance of Company's officers and employees for purposes of performing its duties and exercising its rights hereunder, provided that the Shareholder Representative shall treat confidentially and not disclose any nonpublic information from or about Company to anyone (except on a need to know basis to individuals who agree to treat such information confidentially).

(d) Parent acknowledges that the Shareholder Representative may have a conflict of interest with respect to his duties as Shareholder Representative, and in such regard the Shareholder Representative has informed Parent that he will act in the best interests of the Company Shareholders.

(e) A decision, act, consent or instruction of the Shareholder Representative shall constitute a decision of all Company Shareholders for whom the Merger Consideration otherwise payable to them with respect to the matters set forth herein shall be final, binding and conclusive upon each Company Shareholder, and Parent may rely upon any decision, act, consent or instruction of the Shareholder Representative as being the decision, act, consent or instruction of each and every Company Shareholder. Parent is hereby relieved from any liability to any Person for any acts done by Parent in accordance with such decision, act, consent or instruction of the Shareholder Representative.

9.6 Third-Party Claims. In the event a Parent Indemnified Person becomes aware of a third-party claim which such Parent Indemnified Person believes may result in an indemnification claim under Section 9, the Parent shall notify the Shareholder Representative of such claim. Parent shall have the right in its sole discretion to defend or settle any such claim. In the event that the Shareholder Representative has consented to any such settlement, the Shareholder Representative shall have no power or authority to object under Section 9.3 or any other provision of this Section 9 to the amount of any claim by Parent against the Indemnity Holdback Amount for indemnity with respect to such settlement.

9.7 Tax Effect of Indemnification Payments. All amounts received by Parent from the Indemnity Holdback Amount pursuant to this Agreement shall be treated for all Tax purposes as adjustments to the aggregate consideration payable to the Company Shareholders to the extent permitted under Applicable Law.

9.8 Effect of Investigation. The right of a party to indemnification, payment of Damages or for other remedies based on any representation, warranty, covenant or obligation of the other party contained in or made pursuant to this Agreement shall not be affected by any investigation conducted with respect to, or any knowledge acquired (or capable of being acquired) at any time, whether before or after the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the date the Closing occurs, with respect to the accuracy or inaccuracy of or compliance with, any such representation, warranty, covenant or obligation. The waiver of any condition to the obligation of Parent or the Company to consummate the Merger, where such condition is based on the accuracy of any representation or warranty, or on the performance of or compliance with any covenant or obligation, shall not affect the right to indemnification, payment of Damages, or other remedy based on such representation, warranty, covenant or obligation.

9.9 Exclusive Remedy. The provisions contained in this Section 9 are intended to provide the sole and exclusive remedy for the parties following the Closing as to all money damages based on or arising out of the representations, warranties and covenants of the parties hereunder (it being understood that nothing in this Section 9 or elsewhere in this Agreement shall affect the parties right to seek specific performance or other equitable remedies to enforce their rights under this Agreement or any other instrument executed in connection herewith).

9.10 Additional Limitation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, no Company Shareholder may make any claim for indemnification by reason of the fact that such Company Shareholder was a controlling person, director, officer, member, manager, employee or representative of the Company or was serving as such for another Person at the request of the Company (whether such claim is for Damages of any kind or otherwise and whether such claim is pursuant to the Company's Organizational Documents or any Applicable Law, order, Contract or otherwise) with respect to any claim for indemnification brought by a Parent Indemnified Person against the Company Shareholders under this Agreement or otherwise relating to this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated hereby, or that is based upon any facts or circumstances that form the basis for a claim for indemnification by an Parent Indemnified Person.

10.3 Entire Agreement; Nonassignability; Parties in Interest. This Agreement and the documents and instruments and other agreements specifically referred to herein or delivered pursuant hereto, including the exhibits and schedules hereto, including the Disclosure Schedule: (a) together constitute the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof except for the Confidentiality Agreement, which except as set forth in Section 6.2 shall continue in full force and effect, and shall survive any termination of this Agreement or the Closing, in accordance with its terms; and (b) are not intended to confer upon any other Person any rights or remedies hereunder and shall not be assigned by operation of law or otherwise without the written consent of the other party; provided, that (i) Parent may freely assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement to an Affiliate or in connection with any Change of Control or other similar transaction and (ii) Parent may cause one or more of its Affiliates to act as the purchaser, transferee, assignee and/or employer under this Agreement and/or any of the other Transaction Documents in addition to and/or in lieu of Parent hereunder, provided in each such case that Parent shall remain fully responsible for all payment obligations pursuant to this Agreement.

The parties further agree to replace such void or unenforceable provision of this Agreement with a valid and enforceable provision that will achieve, to the extent possible, the economic, business and other purposes of such void or unenforceable provision.

10.5 Remedies Cumulative. Except as otherwise provided herein, any and all remedies herein expressly conferred upon a party will be deemed cumulative with and not exclusive of any other remedy conferred hereby, or by law or equity upon such party, and the exercise by a party of any one remedy will not preclude the exercise of any other remedy.

10.6 Governing Law.

(a) This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of Delaware applicable to parties residing in Delaware, without regard applicable principles of conflicts of law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, all rights and obligations of the Company Shareholders with respect to the approval and effects of the Merger and their rights in respect to the approval of the Merger shall be governed by the applicable provisions of the DC Code.

(b) The parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally consent to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (or, only if such court declines to accept jurisdiction over a particular matter, then in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, or if jurisdiction is not then available in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware (but only in such event), then in any Delaware state court sitting in New Castle County) and any appellate court from any of such courts (the “Chosen Courts”), for any Action arising out of or relating to this Agreement (but not relating to any other claims between the parties) (and the parties agree not to commence any Action relating to this Agreement except in the Chosen Courts), and further agree that service of any process, summons, notice or document by U.S. registered mail to the addresses set forth in Section 10.1 shall be effective service of process for any Action brought against the applicable party in any Chosen Court. The parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waive any objection to the laying of venue of any Action arising out of this Agreement, in the Chosen Courts, and hereby further irrevocably and unconditionally waive and agree not to plead or claim in any such court that any such Action brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

constellation customers selecting Electron as their preferred launch vehicle to deploy spacecraft across multiple missions. In the third quarter, this growth in constellation customers included entering into a contract with global Internet-of-Things (IoT) connectivity provider Kinéis to deploy 25 satellites across five dedicated Electron launches. This multi-launch constellation contract follows on from the five-launch contract with geospatial intelligence constellation operator BlackSky signed earlier this year.”

Third Quarter 2021 Business Highlights:

- Entered into a contract with global Internet-of-Things (IoT) connectivity provider Kinéis to deploy 25 satellites across five dedicated Electron launches.
- Signed launch services agreements to deploy satellites for Alba Orbital and Aurora Propulsion Technologies.
- Passed a key design review and received NASA approval to move toward launch for ESCAPEDE, a twin Photon mission to Mars led by the University of California Berkeley Space Sciences Laboratory.
- Selected to launch NASA’s Advanced Composite Solar Sail System designed to test new deployable structures and materials technologies for solar sail propulsion systems.

Since September 30, 2021 Rocket Lab also:

- Acquired Colorado-based space software company Advanced Solutions, Inc. which delivers mission proven space software, mission simulation and test systems, and Guidance, Navigation, and Control (GNC) solutions.
- Entered into an agreement to acquire Planetary Systems Corporation, a Maryland-based provider of mechanical separation systems and satellite dispensers with 100% mission success heritage to date across more than 100 missions.

About Rocket Lab

Founded in 2006, Rocket Lab is an end-to-end space company with an established track record of mission success. We deliver reliable launch services, spacecraft components, satellites and other spacecraft and on-orbit management solutions that make it faster, easier and more affordable to access space. Headquartered in Long Beach, California, Rocket Lab designs and manufactures the Electron small orbital launch vehicle and the Photon satellite platform and is developing the Neutron 8-ton payload class launch vehicle. Since its first orbital launch in January 2018, Rocket Lab's Electron launch vehicle has become the second most frequently launched U.S. rocket annually and has delivered 105 satellites to orbit for private and public sector organizations, enabling operations in national security, scientific research, space debris mitigation, Earth observation, climate monitoring, and communications. Rocket Lab's Photon spacecraft platform has been selected to support NASA missions to the Moon and Mars, as well as the first private commercial mission to Venus. Rocket Lab has three launch pads at two launch sites, including two launch pads at a private orbital launch site located in New Zealand, one of which is currently operational, and a second launch site in Virginia, USA which is expected to become operational by the end of 2021. All statements, other than statements of historical facts, contained in this press release, including statements regarding our strategy, future operations, future financial position, projected costs, prospects, plans and objectives of management, including without limitation Q4 2021 preliminary guidance, are forward-looking statements. Words such as, but not limited to, "anticipate," "aim," "believe," "contemplate," "continue," "could," "design," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "may," "might," "plan," "possible," "potential," "predict," "project," "seek," "should," "suggest," "strategy," "target," "will," "would," and similar expressions or phrases, or the negative of those expressions or phrases, are intended to identify forward-looking statements, although not all forward-looking statements contain these identifying words. These forward-looking statements involve a number of risks, uncertainties (many of which are beyond Rocket Lab's control), or other assumptions that may cause actual results or performance to be materially different from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements contained in this press release, including risks related to the global COVID-19 pandemic, including risks related to government restrictions and lock-downs in New Zealand and other countries in which we operate that could delay or suspend our operations; delays and disruptions in expansion efforts; our dependence on a limited number of customers; the harsh and unpredictable environment of space in which our products operate which could adversely affect our launch vehicle and spacecraft; increased congestion from the proliferation of low Earth orbit constellations which could materially increase the risk of potential collision with space debris or another spacecraft and limit or impair our launch flexibility and/or access to our own orbital slots; increased competition in our industry due to rapid technological development and decreasing costs; technological change in our industry which we may not be able to keep up with or which may render our services uncompetitive; average selling price trends; failure of our satellites to operate as intended either due to our error in design in production or through no fault of our own; launch schedule disruptions; supply chain disruptions, product delays or failures, design and engineering flaws; launch failures; natural disasters and epidemics or pandemics; changes in governmental regulations including with respect to trade and export restrictions, or in the status of our regulatory approvals or applications; or other events that force us to cancel or reschedule launches, including customer contractual rescheduling and termination rights, and the other risks detailed from time to time in Rocket Lab's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), including under the heading "Risk Factors" in the prospectus dated October 7, 2021 related to our Registration Statement on Form S-1 (File No. 333-259757), which was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) on October 7, 2021 and elsewhere (including that the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic may also exacerbate the risks discussed therein).

These forward-looking statements are based on Rocket Lab's current plans, expectations and beliefs concerning future developments and their potential effects. Although we believe that we have a reasonable basis for each forward-looking statement contained in this press release, there can be no assurance that the future developments affecting Rocket Lab will be those that we have anticipated and we may not actually achieve the plans, intentions or expectations disclosed in our forward-looking statements, and you should not place undue reliance on our forward-looking statements. Moreover, we operate in a very competitive and rapidly changing environment. New risks emerge from time to time. It is not possible for our management to predict all risks, nor can we assess the impact of all factors on our business or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statements we may make. You should read this press release with the understanding that our actual results may be materially different from the plans, intentions and expectations disclosed in the forward-looking statements we make. All forward-looking statements are qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement. The forward-looking statements contained in this press release are made as of the date of this press release, and we do not assume any obligation to update any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise except as required by applicable law.

Use of Non-GAAP Financial Measures

To supplement our unaudited consolidated financial statements presented on a basis consistent with GAAP, we disclose certain non-GAAP financial measures, including Adjusted EBITDA, non-GAAP gross margin, non-GAAP operating expenses and non-GAAP income (loss) from operations. These supplemental measures exclude the effects of (i) stock-based compensation expense; (ii) amortization of purchased intangible assets; (iii) other recurring and non-recurring interest and other income (expenses), net attributable to acquisitions and (iv) non-cash income tax benefits and expenses. We also supplement our unaudited historical statements and forward-looking guidance with the measure of Adjusted EBITDA, where adjustments to net loss before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) include share-based compensation, warrant expense, foreign exchange gains or losses, and other recurring and non-recurring gains or losses. These non-GAAP measures are not in accordance with and do not serve as an alternative for GAAP. We believe that these non-GAAP measures have limitations in that they do not reflect all of the amounts associated with our GAAP results of operations. These non-GAAP measures should only be viewed in conjunction with corresponding GAAP measures. We compensate for the limitations of non-GAAP financial measures by relying upon GAAP results to gain a complete picture of our performance. Non-GAAP financial measures are not in accordance with and do not serve as an alternative for the presentation of our GAAP financial results. We are providing this information to enable investors to perform more meaningful comparisons of our operating results in a manner similar to management's analysis of our business. We believe that these non-GAAP measures have limitations in that they do not reflect all of the amounts associated with our GAAP results of operations. These non-GAAP measures should only be viewed in conjunction with corresponding GAAP measures. We have not provided a reconciliation of forward-looking non-GAAP measures because, without unreasonable efforts, we are unable to predict with reasonable certainty the amount and timing of adjustments that are used to calculate these non-GAAP measures, particularly related to stock-based compensation and its related tax effects.

Use of Non-GAAP Financial Measures

To supplement our unaudited consolidated financial statements presented on a basis consistent with GAAP, we disclose certain non-GAAP financial measures, including Adjusted EBITDA, non-GAAP gross margin, non-GAAP operating expenses, non-GAAP income from operations, non-GAAP research and development expenses, non-GAAP selling, general and administrative expense, non-GAAP interest and other income, and non-GAAP income (loss) from operations. These supplemental measures exclude the effects of (i) stock-based compensation expense; (ii) amortization of purchased intangible assets; (iii) other non-recurring interest and other income (expenses), net attributable to acquisitions and (iv) non-cash income tax benefits and expenses. We also supplement our unaudited historical statements and forward-looking guidance with the measure of adjusted EBITDA, where adjustments to EBITDA include sharebased compensation, warrant expense related to customers and partners, foreign exchange gains or losses, and other non-recurring gains or losses. These non-GAAP measures are not in accordance with and do not serve as an alternative for GAAP. We believe that these non-GAAP measures have limitations in that they do not reflect all of the amounts associated with our GAAP results of operations. FINANCIAL OUTLOOK

Q4 2021 Revenue Outlook

- Expect Q4 revenue to range between $23 million and $25 million. This does not include any contribution from Planetary Space Corporation as the deal has not closed. We expect the transaction to close during Q4
- Despite strong demand on our manifest, we are currently only planning for two launches in Q4 and anticipate Launch Service revenue of approximately $14 million
- With the addition of ASI and anticipated strong growth across Rocket Labs core Space Systems products and services, we anticipate Space Systems revenue to range between $9 million and $11 million

Q4 GAAP and Non-GAAP Gross Margins

- Expect GAAP gross margins of 13%
- GAAP gross margins are expected to increase by 249% over Q3, positively impacted by favorable mix of higher margin space system revenues, increased absorption of manufacturing overhead and step-down in stock based compensation after the Q3 catch up related to the deSPAC transaction and related expense for restricted stock units
- Expect Non-GAAP gross margins of 27%

Q4 Operating Expense both GAAP and Non-GAAP, Interest Expense and Adjusted EBITDA

- Expect GAAP operating expenses* to range between $24 million and $26 million
- Expect Non-GAAP operating expenses to range between $19 million and $21 million
- Expect interest expense: $2.8 million
- Q4 Adjusted EBITDA loss to range between $9 million and $11 million, which reflects adjustments for stock-based compensation, 3rd party fees associated with M&A activity, depreciation and amortization, FX gains and losses, interest expense, taxes and other recurring and non-recurring items

* Excludes impacts from the purchase price accounting of Advanced Solutions Inc (ASI) and the employee stock purchase plan that will be rolled out later this month.

 Excludes impacts of warrant expense

Rocket Lab to Acquire Space Hardware Company Planetary Systems Corporation

The Acquisition Bolsters Rocket Lab's Space Systems Business and End-to-End Space Solutions Offering across Launch, Spacecraft, and Space Hardware and Manufacture

Long Beach, California. 15 November, 2021 – Rocket Lab USA, Inc. (Nasdaq: RKLb) ("Rocket Lab" or "the Company"), a global leader in launch services and space systems, today announced it has signed a definitive agreement to acquire Planetary Systems Corporation (PSC), a Maryland-based spacecraft separation systems company, for $42 million in cash and 1,720,841 shares of the Company's common stock, plus the potential for an additional 956,023 shares of common stock for a performance earnout based on PSC's CY 2022 and 2023 financial results. The acquisition is expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2021.

PSC is a leading provider of mechanical separation systems and satellite dispensers with 100% mission success heritage to date across more than 100 missions. The acquisition will enable Rocket Lab to leverage PSC's strong brand and quality product offering of lightweight, cost-effective, and flight proven hardware across its vertically integrated Space Systems division of Photon satellite buses and spacecraft components solutions. The deal also enables PSC to make use of Rocket Lab's resources and manufacturing capability to grow their already-strong commercial hardware trade. PSC is the latest addition to the Space Systems portfolio after recent acquisitions of Advanced Solutions, Inc (ASI) in October 2021 and Sinclair Interplanetary in April 2020, and further strengthens Rocket Lab's end-to-end space offering across the full launch and satellite spectrum.

For more than 20 years, PSC's separation systems used to separate satellites from rockets have enabled customers to lower their mission costs and streamline payload integration time from days to just minutes. Its Canisterized Satellite Dispenser (CSD) is a reliable and cost-effective housing for small satellites that protects a spacecraft during launch before deploying them in space. Fully encapsulated, the CSD minimizes damage risk and eliminates the necessity for heavy or complicated interface structures between satellites and the launch vehicle. Together, PSC's products have been integrated across the gamut of today's operational launch vehicles from American launch providers including Rocket Lab, SpaceX, United Launch Alliance, Northrop Grumman, and more; NASA Space Shuttle and International Space Station missions; and international launch vehicles operated by Arianespace, the Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO), the Japan Aerospace Exploration Agency (JAXA), and others.

PSC's Lightbands and CSDs expands Rocket Lab's space hardware offering that includes its Maxwell satellite dispenser, the in-house developed carbon-fibre dispenser that is the industry's lightest CubeSat dispenser in its class. By combining Rocket Lab and PSC's expertise, Rocket Lab will continue to offer Maxwells as part of its end-to-end mission package across ground, satellite design and build, flight software and GNC, and launch, as well as expand the company's in-house merchant space hardware repertoire. PSC will also continue to serve their existing customers and engage their local and national vendors while utilizing Rocket Lab's expertise, resources, and technology to grow and develop their products and services.

PSC's team of 25 people will continue to be led by the company's President and CEO Mike Whalen in Maryland, with founder Walter Holemans also remaining in his role of Chief Engineer.

"Having integrated several of PSC's industry-leading products across our own Electron launches, we've seen up close the incredible attention to detail and impeccable craftsmanship that sets them apart as industry leaders in launch vehicle and spacecraft separation systems," said Peter Beck, Rocket Lab Founder and Chief Executive Officer. "Like Rocket Lab, PSC has a dedication to producing the best products and services that lower costs without compromising on quality and reliability. By combining our engineering expertise and capabilities, Rocket Lab and PSC will continue to pioneer the industry with trusted, mission-critical hardware and services that are cost-effective and streamline access to space."

"PSC started 23 years ago as a one-person company in the living room of a row house in Washington, DC," said Walter Holemans, PSC founder and Chief Engineer. "Thanks to a super talented team and a lot of hard work, we accomplished our mission of delivering high value technologies to our customers. Now, we are delighted to be joining the team at Rocket Lab to deliver the next evolution in space systems."
